In the Ohio contest Simeon D. Fess (Rep.) appeared to have a shade he best of the battle between himself and Senator Pomerene (Dem.). In Michigan Senator Townsend (Rep.) apparently had succeeded in defeating former Gov. Ferris by a greatly reduced normal Republican In Nebraska Ralph Howell, old time Progressive and radical Republican, won over Sepator Hitchcock (Dem.).

In Rhode Island Senator Gerry (Dem.) was ahead of former Gov. Beeckman. In Utah former Gov. Bamberger (Rep.) had a slight lead over Senator King (Dem.). In Vermont Representative Greene (Rep.) had the best of the hattle. In West Virginia Senator Sutherland (Rep.) appeared to be certain of defeating his Democratic rival, M. M. Neely.

Shipstead Leads Kellogg.

Vague returns from Minnesota gave Shipstead, the Farmer-Labor candidate against Senator Kellogg (Rep.), a slight advantage in the city districts. It was believed that in St. Paul Senator Kellogg would win by 5,000 to 15,000.

The most interesting of the New York local contests also resulted in REPUBLICAN MAJORITY an impressive Democratic victory. . Corporation Counsel O'Brien was elected Surrogate of New York county over John P. Cohalan and Mr. Coleman, his Republican opponent.

Representative James P. Glynn (Rep.) has been defeated by Patrick B. O'Sulivan (Dem.), in the Fifth Congressional District. The Republicans, however, seem certain of their other four Representatives. Both houses of the State Legislature are Republican.

Mr. Roraback, who predicted twenty-four hours ago that the Republican would sweep the State by 40,000, admitted to-night that he did not expect the Democrats to make so strong a showing, but he insisted that he was pleased by the result and that further returns would serve only to increase the Republican lead. There is still the pos-returns would serve ony to increase the Republican lead. There is still the possibility of another upset or two in the races for Congress.

Edward M. Yeomans, Democratic State chairman, who predicted last night that the Democrats would win by 17,000 refused to admit defeat. Although the completing districts are expected to inrefused to admit defeat. Although the remaining districts are expected to increase the Republican lead Mr. Yeomans said he was still hopeful that the final returns would show either a Democratic victory or a much lessened Republican majority.

There were local upsets in favor of the Democrats in many city elections over the State. In Stamford the Democratic ticket was elected. Major Alfred N. Phillips was elected Mayor over Harry C. Scofield by 884. Six of the eight-Councilmen are Democrats.

There was a strong disposition among the Republican leaders to shy from national issues, the tariff specifically, as the cause of the overthrow. While they wouldn't explain just why they thought the State ticket got such a beating, they let it be known that they didn't think the national Administration could be blamed. They said, too, that New York was evidently caught up in a Democratic vortex swirling over the whole country. Samuel S. Koenig, who gave up at 7 P. M., had no words to express his grief. Helen Varick Boswell said the result was "terribly disappointing and amazing."

WATERBURY, Conn., Nov. 7.—Lieut.Gov. C. A. Templeton, Governor-elect, in a statement to-night to the people of the State, said:
"The definite news that I have been elected Governor only confirms what I have confidently expected from the day of my nomination. I could not conceive of a repudiation of the Republican party and its candidates by the voters of

BRIDGEPORT GIVES ITS MAYOR SLIGHT MARGIN

Democrats Disappointed at His Failure to Run Stronger.

Special Dispotch to THE New York Herald.
Bridgeport, Nov. 7.—Bridgeport gave Mayor David E. Fitzgerald of New Haven, Democratic candidate for Goverfier, a complimentary vote of 12,140 to 11,713 for his Republican opponent, Charles A. Templeton. Mayor Fitzgeraid ran ahead of his ticket, however, the Republican candidates for other offices sweeping the city, with the exception of Robert D. Goddard of Bridgeport, Democratic candidate for Treasurer, who led Gilpatric by a small margin.

In the same year he was elected Sheriff of New York county, running 20,000 ahead of his ticket. Then he served a year as President of the Board of Aldermen.

He was elected Governor in 1915. He carried the city by a record plurality and the State by 15,108 against Gov. Whitman. His hobby had become the recipibald McNeil, Jr.

Frank L. Wilder and Howard S. Challenger, Republicans, and John L. Harter. Democrate were elected to the State Senate. W. F. D. Klipatrick and Adolph Lederer, both Republicans, were elected State Representatives.

In the small towns surrounding Bridgeport indications at eight o'clock to-night were that the Republicans would win all important offices. Fitzgerald, candidate for Governor, had looked for a safe margin of 2,500 to 3,000 votes in Bridgeport, so the showing is a disapopining one from a Democratic viewpoint. General apathy aided by rain caused a light vote to be cast not only in Bridgeport, but in the surrounding towns, a foot deep.

CALDER DISAPPOINTED; THANKS HIS SUPPORTERS Points to City Vote as Offset to Up State. Senator Calder said last night: "I am maturally disappointed at the result. I wish to express my sincere appreciation of the support my friends gave me.

"We carried the up-State districts hy from 125,000 to 120,000, but the stupendous vote in the cities offset that."

FULTON, HAMILTON.

Tom—got to be Tammany leader of the First Assembly district. Smith had enlisted with Tammany as soon as he could vote and Foley, looking around for promising young men to maintain the prestige of the district, picked him to run for the Assembly in 1902.

After two years at Albany the future Governor wanted to retire. He said he had no head for State affairs, couldn't understand what was going on. Foley said: "You'll understand in time; stick." Smith stuck, and in 1906 he got important committee assignments and began to take a deep interest in legislation. He rose rapidly to the leadership of the Assembly. He was chairman of the Ways and Means Committee in 1911. Democratic floor leader in 1912 and the unanimous choice of the Democrats for Speaker in 1913.

In 1915 he was a delegate to the constitutional convention, and there made such an impression that Eilhu Root credited him with having the best informed mind in the convention regarding the need of amending the State government—a compliment from a Republican much treasured by Mr. Smith. In the same year he was elected Sheriff of New York county, running 20,000 ahead of his ticket. Then he served a year as President of the Board of Aldermen.

He was elected Governor in 1918. He

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERAID.

CHICAGO, NOV. 7.—Mayor William Hale Thompson will not be a candidate to succeed himself next spring. The defeat of Frank S. Righeimer, Republican candidate for County Judge, by Edmund K. Jarecki. Democrat, at to-day's election was the reason for the announcement by the Chicago Mayor that he would retire at the end of his term.

Thompson's City Hall machine made desperate efforts to reelect Judge Righeimer and his defeat was considered by politicians as a knockout blow for the Thompson-Lundin Tamminy machine. The recent Board of Education scandal, million dollar real estate experts and general waste and extravagance of the city administration was too great a load for Righeimer, and the Democratic landslide that swept the entire county ticket into office smowed under the Thompson standard bearer.

Late returns from city, county and down-State indicated that the $55,000.

JERSEY VOTE MOSTLY IN BEFORE 3 P. M.

Frelinghuysen and Edwards at Polls Both Predict Victory.

Gov. Edward I. Edwards, Democraticandidate against United States Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, cast his vote at 10 o'clock in the morning, after which he predicted that he and George S. Silzer, Democratic nominee for Governor, would be elected by an overwhelming majority.

Senator Frelinghuysen after casting his vote said he had every reason to believe that he would carry New Jersey by 100,000 majority. He said the voters could not be fooled hato believing that his opponent if sent to Washington could bring about a repeal of the Volstead act. Reports from all parts of New Jersey, especially the cities, showed that the voters flocked to the polls early, with the result that an unusually heavy vote was cast before 3 o'clock in the after-was cast before 3 o'clock in the afternoon!

According to Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, Hudson county, the Democratic stronghold, would give Gov.
Edwards 90,000 more votes than Senator Frelinghuysen. Reports from all parts of Hudson county just before the polls closed indicated an overwhelming vote fro Gov. Edwards and Mr. Silzer, according to Mayor Hague.

Women workers were at the polls in all sections of New Jersey.

Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, one of the principal Democratic leaders of the State, declared late last night that Judge Silzer would be elected Governor over Mr. Runyon by a plurality of at least 75,000, and that Gov. Edwards would go to the United States wards would go to the United States Senate by an even larger plurality.

Mr. Hague said that he did not be-lieve that the Republicans would have even a majority when they come into the Democratic stronghold of Hudson
